Your 2022-2023 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. The law says that before awarding Federal Student Aid, we may ask you to confirm the information you reported on your FAFSA. To verify that you provided correct information, the financial aid administrator will compare your FAFSA with the information on this worksheet and with any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. You must complete and sign this worksheet, attach any required documents, and submit the form and other required documents to the financial aid administrator. We may ask for additional information. Until all forms/documents are received, your aid cannot be processed.

I. Household Information

Please list:

- Your parent(s). In cases of separation/divorce, list the parent with whom you lived with more during the past 12 months. If this parent is remarried, you must include your step-parent.
- Your parent(s) dependents for the 2022-23 academic year. Include yourself and other dependent children.
- Include other people if they live with you and will receive at least half of their support from your parent(s) during the entire period from July 1, 2022-June 30, 2023.
- Include the name of the college for any household member who will be enrolled at least half time, in a degree, diploma, or certificate program at a postsecondary educational institution any time between July 1, 2022, and June 30, 2023. If more space is needed, attach a separate page with your name and PSC ID/social security number at the top. NOTE: Dependent students do not report parent's college attendance.
