

PREGNANT AND PARENTING STUDENTS

Sexual Discrimination, Harassment, and Misconduct Policy

Know Your Rights

PROTECTIONS

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibits schools that receive federal funds from discriminating against students on the basis of sex, which includes a student's "actual or potential" parental, family or marital status and a student's "pregnancy, childbirth, false pregnancy, termination of pregnancy or recovery there from." Generally speaking, this means that schools must give all students who might be, are or have been pregnant (whether currently parenting or not) equal access to school programs and extracurricular activities, and schools must treat pregnant and parenting students in the same way that they treat other students who are similarly able or unable to participate in school activities. Please see Board Policy C-9: Sexual Harrassment at prairiestate.edu, for complete details.

What specifically does Title IX require with respect to pregnant and parenting students?

1 A school must provide equal access to school and extracurricular activities for students who are pregnant, who have been pregnant, or who have a child, and special services provided for temporarily disabled students must be provided for pregnant students as well.

2 Separate programs or schools for pregnant and parenting students must be completely voluntary and must offer opportunities equal to those offered for non-pregnant students.

3 Absences due to pregnancy or childbirth must be excused for as long as deemed medically necessary by the student's doctor.

4 A doctor's note can be required for pregnant students to participate in activities only if the school requires a doctor's note from all students who have conditions that require medical care.

FROM THE PSC SEXUAL DISCRIMINATION, HARASSMENT AND MISCONDUCT POLICY

Members of the Prairie State College community, guests and visitors have the right to be free from all forms of sexual discrimination, harassment and misconduct, examples of which can include acts of sexual violence, sexual harassment, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. The college believes in zero tolerance for sexual discrimination. Zero tolerance means that when an allegation of misconduct is brought to an appropriate administrator's attention, protective and other remedial measures will be used to reasonably ensure that such conduct ends, is not repeated, and the effects on the victim and community are remedied, including serious sanctions when a responding party is found to have violated this policy.
